However, the University may need to make variations to your Course which it considers to be necessary including:

- 7.1.1. to reflect changes to the theory in an area of research or practices around the subject or its delivery;
  - 7.1.2. as a result of a commissioning or accrediting body requiring certain content to be added to or changed within your Course;
  - 7.1.3. if your educational experience would be or would be likely to be impaired if changes were not made to your Course.
- 7.2. Changes made by the University may include changes to the content and structure of your Course as well as the location, dates, times and method of its delivery. Nevertheless, prior to making any change to your Course which the University reasonably believes would result in you receiving a substantially different Course or service from us to what you agreed to when accepting your place on a Course (a "substantial change"), the University will notify you in writing.
- 7.3. If any change we propose would amount to a substantial change, you will be given the opportunity to:
  - 7.3.1. Transfer to a different Course; or
  - 7.3.2. cancel your place on your Course without incurring any penalties. If you wish to do this, you must give the University written notice within 14 days of being notified by the University of a substantial change to your Course. The University will not provide you with any compensation if this should occur.
- 7.4. These Terms are governed by English law and where necessary you can bring legal proceedings against us in the English courts. If you live in Scotland or Northern Ireland, you may also bring proceedings in the Scottish Courts or Northern Irish Courts (as appropriate).
- 7.5. The University may transfer its rights and obligations under these Terms to another organisation. We0((o)-5(b)3r)11( (se)-11a875 0o)-5(rg08.44(the)-1.444(. ))JTJETg08.44(y)-3121( )19(y1 3

7.8. If a court finds part of this contract illegal, the rest will continue in force. Each of the paragraphs of these Terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining paragraphs will remain in full force
